About the Authors

Maryna Looijen-Nosachenko is a professional Ukrainian language teacher who helps foreigners worldwide become fluent in Ukrainian.

In addition, she holds an education blog where she writes about Ukrainian language, history, and culture:

<https://www.speakua.com/blog/>.

Maryna is also an information literacy specialist, traveler, and explorer. She likes yoga, cats, and Mediterranean cuisine.

Nataliya Trots, originally from Lviv, is a passionate Ukrainian language teacher who has been instructing English-speaking students of all ages, including children as young as five.

Nataliya's dream came true when she discovered the Ukrainian language school, "Speak Ukrainian," where she can now assist her students not only as a teacher but also as a native speaker.

She also values quality time with her family and has a deep interest in practical psychology.

Діалоги – Dialogues

Діалог 1

Ребекка: Андрію, звідки ти?

Андрій: Я зі Львова. Ти вже була у Львові, Ребекко?

Ребекка: На жаль, ні. Це на заході України?

Андрій: Так, справді. Показати тобі фото?

Ребекка: Звісно! Покажи, будь ласка!

Андрій: Ось наш Оперний театр, візитна картка міста.

Ребекка: Дуже гарний! Мабуть, він у центрі міста.

Андрій: Так, на проспекті Свободи. А це Львівська ратуша. Вежа має висоту 65 метрів. Можна побачити чудовий вид на місто.

Ребекка: Цікаво. Біля ратуші так багато людей!

Андрій: На площі Ринок завжди багато львів'ян і туристів. А ще тут є історичний музей.

Ребекка: Яка гарна церква!

Андрій: Це Домініканський собор. Тобі потрібно його побачити!

Ребекка: Я дуже хочу відвідати Львів. Дякую тобі, Андрію!

Андрій: Будь ласка, Ребекко!

Dialogue 1

Rebecca: Andrii, where are you from?

Andrii: I'm from Lviv. Have you already been to Lviv, Rebecca?

Rebecca: Unfortunately, no. Is it in the west of Ukraine?

Andrii: Yes, really. I can show you a photo.

Rebecca: Of course! Show me, please!

Andrii: Here is our Opera House, the business card of the city.

Rebecca: Very nice! Probably, it is in the center of the city.

Andrii: Yes, on Svoboda Avenue. And this is the Lviv Town Hall. The tower is 65 meters high. You can see a wonderful view of the city there.

Rebecca: Interesting. There are so many people near the town hall!

Andrii: There are always many Lviv residents and tourists on Rynok Square. There is also a historical museum here.

Rebecca: What a beautiful church!

Andrii: This is the Dominican Cathedral. You must see it!

Rebecca: I really want to visit Lviv. Thank you, Andrii!

Andrii: You are welcome, Rebecca!
